Vilnius University Kaunas Faculty
Institute of Languages, Literature, and Translation Studies

Certificate of Appreciation

This is to certify that Krzysztof Hejduk has delivered two academic lectures titled "Is Game Localization Audiovisual Translation?" and "Researching Video Game Translation – Approaches and Methods", as part of the university's curriculum on Video game localization for students. The lectures were held on November 11th, 2024, and were well-received by both students and faculty members.

We sincerely acknowledge and appreciate your dedication to advancing the field of game localization and to the academic development of our students.

Thank you for your valuable contribution.
